

Memorial Report 2016.

As another year rolls around, we again remember all the friends we have met while dancing, who have passed away.

Many of our dance friends have become a big part of our lives and we sorely miss those who have gone on. We are thankful for the many ways their lives have enriched ours. We miss their smiling faces, their laughter, the conversations, jokes, hugs, and their hand in ours.

As I think of them, I am reminded of the song, The Lord of the Dance:

Dance, dance wherever you may be, I am the Lord of the dance said He,

And I lead you all, wherever you may be,

And I lead you all in the dance, said He.

We pray that as He has helped lead us in the dance of life, He will be those who have left us and be with those of us left dealing with the loss of our dancing friends.

Please stand with me for a moment of silence in respect for all dancers who have passed away this past year.
